

Prevention Educator - Colleges and Universities (Ronkonkoma)

Compensation: Salaried - Commensurate with Qualifications and Experience

Employment Type: Full-Time

Non-Profit Organization

The Prevention Educator at the Crime Victims Center, Inc. is a key representative of our agency. The candidate must be a relationship builder with a strong desire to affect positive change in the lives of college staff, students, and parents of students.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Strong communication and organizational skills, detailed orientated and passionate about preventing sexual assault and relationship violence.
- Ability to work closely with Long Island colleges and university staff, students, student clubs and organizations, parents of students and others to promote, coordinate and present prevention education programs and provide support to ensure compliance with the New York State "Enough is Enough" requirements.
- Ability to present educational programs to staff, students, parents, public safety officers and others.
- Ability to work closely with administrators, student groups, and campus stakeholders with diverse life experiences, opinions, and identities.
- Must possess a strong understanding or desire to learn about the complex nature, causes, effects, myths, and realities surrounding sexual assault and domestic violence.
- Ability to reach out and meet with college and university Title IX coordinators, staff, students, student clubs and organizations and others.
- Participation in community education and outreach events.
- Professional telephone etiquette that includes building and maintaining professional relationships.
- Public speaking experience desired.
- Candidate will also assist in training new educators and working with all other agency programs.
- Goal oriented individual who excels at meeting objectives.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Excel, Word, and PowerPoint skills (creating and editing).
- Must have a car and be available to travel in Suffolk County.
- Available for occasional evening and weekend meetings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Minimum Bachelor's degree required, prefer Master's Degree.
- All qualified applicants must undergo drug and alcohol testing, a full background check, educational verification, professional reference checks, an e-verify check, and a sex offender registry verification.

Please submit your resume in Microsoft Word or PDF format to Employment@parentsformeganslaw.org. Please name your document using your last name first followed by your first name. For example, if your name is Jane Jones, name your Word or

PDF document, JonesJane.doc. Please include salary requirements. RESUMES THAT ARE NOT IN WORD OR PDF FORMAT WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED NOR WILL RESUMES FAXED TO THE AGENCY. If you have submitted your resume in the past, please resubmit it for consideration.

All applicants will be considered for positions without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, genetic disposition, family care status, carrier status, marital status veteran status, sexual orientation, or other legally protected status.

All qualified applicants must undergo a mandatory drug and alcohol screening, a full background check, education verification, professional reference checks, an e-verify check and a sex offender registry verification.

Prevention Educator – Per/Diem (Suffolk and Nassau Counties)

Compensation: Commensurate

Employment Type: Part-Time

Non-Profit Organization

The Crime Victims Center, Inc. d/b/a Parents for Megan's Law is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the prevention and treatment of child and adult sexual assault and the provision of support services to all victims of violent crime. If you have confidence and a desire to present educational programs and want to help affect significant changes in people's lives, then this position is for you. We are seeking a per diem prevention educator who has public speaking experience. The educator presents child sexual abuse prevention and adult prevention education programs in Long Island public and private schools and community organizations. You must have strong communication skills and passion about preventing child and adult sexual assault. Experience presenting educational programs to adults and children is desirable and you must be available to travel in Suffolk and Nassau County for presentations.

SUMMARY OF MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS: Bachelor's Degree, Public Speaking Experience, PowerPoint Expertise, high level of professionalism, willingness to travel, passion for child sexual abuse and rape prevention education.

E-mail your resume in Microsoft Word or PDF format to:

Employment@parentsformeganslaw.org No other files will be considered.

IMPORTANT: When submitting your resume, please name your Word or PDF document using your last name first followed by your first name. For example, if your name is Jane Jones, name your document, JonesJane.doc. Write " Prevention Educator - Per/Diem " in your email subject line. If you want your resume to go to the top of the pile, here's a hint: A paid resume writer will not traditionally provide the level of detail we want to see for each of your prior positions.

All applicants will be considered for positions without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, genetic disposition, family care status, carrier status, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, or other legally protected status.

All qualified applicants must undergo drug and alcohol testing, a full background check, educational verification, professional reference checks, an e-verify check and a sex offender registry verification.

Therapist/Mental Health Counselor/Social Worker - F/T (Bilingual) (Ronkonkoma)

Compensation: Salaried - Commensurate with Qualifications and Experience

Employment Type: Full-Time

Non-Profit Organization

The Crime Victims Center, dba Parents for Megan's Law a Suffolk County based rape crisis and crime victims center is seeking a full-time New York State Licensed LMSW, LCSW, RCSW, Mental Health Counselor or Psychologist to provide crisis counseling, short and long term counseling to child and adult victims of sexual assault and other violent crimes. You must be fluent in English and Spanish. The position start date is October 1, 2017 and we are actively interviewing now.

Candidate will be an integral member of the organization's Crime Victim Advocacy team and will be responsible for delivering comprehensive bilingual holistic treatment and support services, as primary counselor, to child and adult victims and non-offending family members through individual, family and group counseling. Candidate will also provide crime victim advocacy support services for crime victims.

REQUIREMENTS:

Active New York State License and insurance required

Salaried Position: This is a position which will initially require candidate to train and work Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 5 PM. After training and experience garnered, the schedule will become more flexible and will include some evenings and Saturdays as needed to accommodate our clients.

EXPERIENCE:

- MINIMUM of three years of experience in mental health counseling.
- Individual (child and adult), family and group counseling and case management or victim services experience.
- Superb verbal and written communication skills (Spanish and English).
- Experience, knowledge of and or willingness to practice Rogerian, Cognitive Behavioral and Play Therapeutic Approaches.
- Computer literate - Excel, Word and PowerPoint.

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS/ABILITIES:

- Candidate MUST be fluent in English and Spanish.
- Provide individual clinical counseling and therapy, family and group counseling, and case management (linkage, referral, advocacy and consultation), crisis intervention and planning for clients on caseload.

If you are interested in a rewarding and challenging career and have the qualifications necessary to excel in our dynamic environment, we invite you to submit your resume in a Microsoft Word or PDF format to Employment@parentsformeganslaw.org. No other format will be viewed. Please name your Word or PDF document using your last name first followed by your first name. For example, if your name is Jane Jones, name your document JonesJane.doc. Title the subject, "Counselor."

Please do not apply if you do not meet the minimum requirements.

If you want your resume to be seriously considered, here is a tip: A paid resume writer will not traditionally provide the level of detail we want to see for each of the prior positions you held, or the skills you have.

All applicants will be considered for positions without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, genetic disposition, family care status, carrier status, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, or other legally protected status.

All qualified applicants must undergo a mandatory drug and alcohol screening, a full background check, education verification, professional reference checks, an e-verify check and a sex offender registry verification.